

AUTHOR VISIT - RACHEL DELAHAYE

On Tues 10th March, Rachel Delahaye will be joining us to talk about creative writing and future worlds. Her YA books Day of the Whale, Electric Life and Splinters have all been nominated for the Carnegie Award for Writing. Electric Life has won three awards and been nominated for many more.

There will be the opportunity to buy Rachel's books and have them signed on the day.

All books are £8. If you'd like to purchase any, please follow the payment link instructions. Deadline for ordering is Monday Feb 23rd. Rachel will also bring extra books on the day.

ELECTRIC LIFE

A girl falls from a sanitised, hi-tech world into one of dirt and danger, and realises that life isn't a game but it's still worth playing...

SURGE – the sequel

This is not a stand-alone story. Electric Life needs to be read first.

Appropriate for ages 12+

DAY OF THE WHALE

An eco-thriller about an island ruled by whales and a dangerous adventure to uncover the truth.

Appropriate for ages 10+

SPLINTERS

A girl risks losing everything as she searches for a better life in parallel worlds. An introspective thriller.

Appropriate for ages 12+
